

I support the above petition and request that the FCC maintain Morse code testing for General- and Extra-class licenses.